OVERVIEW

Purpose

This regulation specifies Fort Hood's requirements for:

- Registration.
- Transportation.
- Storage.
- Possession of weapons.

1a

Abbreviations and terms

Abbreviations and terms used in this regulation are explained in the glossary.

1b

References

Required and related publications and prescribed and referenced forms are listed in appendix A.

1c

Applicability

This regulation applies to all military personnel, government employees, and all civilians, including Family Members, who store, possess, or use a weapon on Fort Hood.

This regulation does not apply to government-owned weapons used in conjunction with official duties in compliance with applicable military regulations.

The only exceptions are those specifically set forth in this regulation as follows:

- Peace officers.
- Parole officers.
- Community supervisions and corrections department officers.
- Judge or justice of the supreme court, the court of criminal appeals, a district court, a criminal district court, a constitutional county court, a statutory county court, a justice court, or a municipal court.
- Uniformed part time or reserve peace officers who may carry their duty firearm and club, concealed or exposed, while traveling to and from their place of employment as a peace officer.

- Commissioned uniformed security officers who may carry their duty firearm and club in plain view in the performance of their duties or traveling to and from their place of employment.
- Persons traveling on or through Fort Hood who do not enter an access control point (ACP) (traveling on Maxdale Road, Shell Mountain Road, etc.) and do not stop to conduct any activity within installation boundaries.

Persons prohibited from possessing a firearm under state or federal law (Lautenberg Amendment, felony convictions, etc.) may not possess nor register a firearm on the installation.

This regulation does not apply to government owned weapons used in conjunction with official duties in compliance with applicable military regulations.

When a firearm is authorized to be worn exposed, the official badge of the employing agency will be conspicuously displayed and visible to the casual observer.

1d

Authority

The Federal Assimilative Crimes Act, 18 United States Code (USC) Section 13, makes the Texas Penal Code applicable to persons on Fort Hood.

- Unless specifically stated, this regulation does not preempt the Texas Penal Code.

1e

Penalty

Military personnel who fail to comply with chapters 3 through 7 of this regulation are subject to judicial or nonjudicial action under the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), or appropriate administrative action.

Government employees and civilians who violate blocks 3 through 7 of this regulations may be subject to prosecution in the United States Magistrate Court, barred from post, referred to civilian authorities, or subject to disciplinary and administrative action according to appropriate civilian personnel regulations.

Weapons used, possessed, transported, or stored in violation of this regulation may be permanently confiscated.

1f

RESPONSIBILITIES

Security and storage

Commanders:

- Secure weapons and ammunition in locked containers separate from military arms, ammunition, and explosives (AA&E).
- Comply with storage requirements of Army Regulation (AR) 190-11 (Physical Security of Arms, Ammunition, and Explosives) and Fort Hood Circular 190-8-3 (Administration and Management of Physical Security).
- Provide DOD military personnel a place to store privately owned weapons, 24 hours per day.
- Use procedures in AR 710-2 (Supply Policy Below Wholesale Level) to account for and inventory all weapons and ammunition.
- Post on unit bulletin boards applicable local regulations, state law, and local law regarding weapons and ammunition.
- Comply with AR 190-13 (The Army Physical Security Program), AR 190-11, and Fort Hood Circular 190-8-3 to ensure proper storage and control.

2a

Unauthorized weapons

Process unauthorized privately owned weapons according to AR 195-5 (Evidence Procedures).

2b

Procedures

Brief personnel on this regulation and subordinate command guidance when guidance or regulations change, or when personnel are newly assigned.

- Establish procedures to require written permission from the commander to withdraw weapons and ammunition from arms rooms.

Written permission includes the activity authorized for withdrawing the weapon and/or ammunition and the time and date the item must be returned to the arms room.

2c

REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS FOR FIREARMS

Procedures and documen- tation

Service Members assigned to Fort Hood and that live on the installation will register all firearms with the Directorate of Emergency Services (DES) including those owned or possessed by their dependents.

Registration is required for firearms only. Firearms are defined as:

"Any device designed, made, or adapted to expel a projectile through a barrel by using energy generated by an explosive or burning substance or any device readily convertible to that use. The term includes "handguns." An antique "firearm" is any firearm manufactured prior to 1899 and is subject to the same rules as any other firearm, to include any firearm that is loaded only through the muzzle."

All firearms entering Fort Hood must be registered with the DES. (Exceptions for on duty security guards and police are listed in paragraph 1d.)

Registration of firearms also applies to persons traveling on Fort Hood, but not entering through an ACP.

Firearms can be registered at the Marvin Leath Visitor Control Center 24 hours per day, 7 days a week.

Soldiers in the rank of Staff Sergeant and below are required to obtain approval from the unit commander.

Newly assigned Soldiers (SSG and below) in possession of assignment orders may receive a temporary weapons registration (not to exceed 5 working days) pending Commander's approval.

Soldiers (SSG and below) that purchase a firearm (on weekends and holidays) may receive a temporary weapons registration (not to exceed 3 working days) pending Commander's approval.

Once the Commander has signed the weapon registration form the Soldier will return to the DES to register their weapon.

and documentation

Soldiers in the rank of Sergeant First Class and above are not required to obtain approval of the unit commander and must register their firearm immediately, prior to entering the installation.

To register a firearm, submit:

- Fort Hood Form 190-X19 (Privately Owned Firearms Registration) to the (DES), Police Desk Section.
- Get Fort Hood Form 190-X19 from the Phantom Clerk Website at <http://phantomclerk.hood.army.mil/catalog>.
- Full identification of the firearm described on FH Form 190-X19 includes:
 - Make
 - Model (optional)
 - Caliber
- Serial number (if any)
- A locally engraved serial number is not required; however, it is highly recommended for firearms without serial numbers.
- Copies of Fort Hood Form 190-X19 are distributed as follows:
 - Original stays in the DES file.
 - Registrant receives the first copy, which must remain with the firearm at all times.
 - Registrant's commander receives the second copy, if applicable.

Each registrant receives the fact sheet at figure B-1.

Do not bring the firearm to the police station unless specifically told to do so.

All firearms owned by military personnel are eligible to be registered if directed by the unit commander.

3a

Registration
by spouses

Spouses will register firearms if the sponsor is unavailable; however, all information on the Fort Hood Form 190-X19 will refer to the sponsor.

The spouse must present a power of attorney to register a weapon on the sponsor's behalf.

3b

Registration cancellation

The registrant or spouse will report to the DES, Crime Records Section to cancel the registration upon permanent removal, sale, or transfer of the registered firearm.

Registration may not be canceled more than ten days before permanent change of station (PCS), expiration term of service (ETS), or retirement.

Registration for Soldiers who will remain in the local Fort Hood area after leaving active military service may be transferred upon verification of information.

- Verification may be accomplished at any time upon presentation of clearing papers for separation (ETS, retirement, or terminal leave).

3c

STORAGE REQUIREMENTS FOR WEAPONS (CLUBS AND ILLEGAL KNIVES) AND REGISTERED FIREARMS

Troop billets and transient quarters

Military personnel who reside in troop billets or transient quarters shall immediately store firearms and weapons in the unit arms room.

Secure weapons in locked containers separated from the military AA&E, according to AR 190-11, or store off the installation.

Weapons shall remain secured except when signed out for authorized purposes and must be cleaned only in an area designated by the unit commander.

4a

Quarters Firearms can be stored in Family housing, bachelor officers' quarters (BOQ), or bachelor enlisted quarters (BEQ) by authorized occupants.

Commanders may require that firearms be stored in the unit arms room.

Weapons other than firearms may be stored in assigned Family housing, BOQ, or BEQ according to restrictions specified in this regulation.

4b

Prohibitions Do not store weapons in:

- Automobiles
- Troop billets
- Offices
- Transient quarters
- Another's government furnished quarters except by military personnel, civilians, or Family Members visiting assigned personnel, and then only after compliance with registration requirements specified in paragraph 3a.

4c

TRANSPORTATION AND POSSESSION OF WEAPONS (FIREARMS, HANDGUNS, CLUBS, ILLEGAL KNIVES)

Documentation All persons transporting firearms subject to registration requirements will carry Fort Hood Form 190-X19.

5a

Age limits Firearms shall not be carried, possessed, transported, or used by any person under 18 years of age unless accompanied by an adult.

Hunters will follow age limits according to Fort Hood Regulation 210-25 (Hunting, Fishing, and Natural Resources Conservation) and the (Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare, and Recreation (DFMWR) Hunt Guide.

5b

Authorized activities

Weapons in the custody of a person or in a vehicle (as specified in paragraphs 5d and 5e) may be transported on Fort Hood under the following conditions:

- Permanent or temporary removal from Fort Hood due to transfer, sale, or repair.
- Transportation from on or off-post storage area to on-post location of legal activities such as:
 - Hunting
 - Target shooting
